

Get Full-Service, Expert Contract Logistics for Your Retail Fulfillment

Cura is known for fast, flexible “warehousing-as-a-service” solutions across North America. We build, operate, and manage turnkey distribution centers, making it easier to deliver time-sensitive inventory.

And now, with the introduction of Cura Retail Logistics, we offer complete end-to-end fulfillment services for global manufacturers.

Why work with Cura Retail Logistics?

This new division allows Cura to provide retailers and manufacturers with much-needed reliable, flexible, and cost-effective warehousing and distribution services. Benefits include:

- Get the right product to the right retailer in the right quantity each time
- Greater visibility into — and control over — inventory levels
- Assortment guidance, with pick, pack, and delivery down to store level
- Full-service display build & pack out solutions for all retail needs
- Complete and accurate orders delivered on time with fewer chargebacks

Enterprise-level contract logistics services can be customized to include strategic sales assistance, private label development & placement, expert account management, drop-shipping and bulk deliveries — all priced for any budget!

Reduce Costs

Cut warehouse overhead and labor expenses. We handle all aspects of building and running a product distribution center.

Improve Efficiency

Leverage our infrastructure and technology for the latest advances in transportation and warehouse management systems.

Use What You Need

Respond quickly to market fluctuations and scale your operations up or down based on changes in demand.

Satisfy Customer Specs

Customize packaging to meet distinct multi-channel requirements — including creating custom product displays.

Partner With Professionals

Solve complex logistics problems with support from experts who know markets, transportation modes, and regulatory landscapes.

Call 1-586-615-2909

or contact Casey Wakula at caseyw@curarg.com to learn more about retail logistics solutions customized for your business.

www.curagroup.com